NATIONAL HANDMADE DAY

2 APRIL 2022

NATIONAL HANDMADE DAY

National Handmade Day on the first Saturday in April recognizes all those who put forth their creative talents into gifts warming the heart and leaving us awed.

Whether it's baked goods, beauty products or woodcraft, quilts, toys, or artwork, those who create handmade gifts do so with an eye toward craftsmanship. Some carry-on traditions from one generation to the next, and others transfer skills learned in a trade, making it an art form. From artisans to craftsmen, tinkerers, and those with eclectic style who create beautiful, functional works of art and scrumptious delights, each shares a bit of their passion.

For anyone who has ever received a handmade gift, we delight in these one-of-a-kind treasures. We savour baked goods, bath, and skin products, and we can't wait for more. Pottery, jewellery, and other designs become heirlooms, handed down from generation to generation, gathering history wherever they go. We marvel at each stitch in a quilt or notch in a carving, the care taken to make just the right cut, or to pair scents or colours. Custom pieces carry even more meaning.

From inspiration to finished piece, those who have a passion for handmade crafts delight in their projects. It brings pleasure to their lives, and they enjoy bringing them to you.

Housekeeping

Library

Kindly ensure that should you return a book that you place it on the table clearly marked. We sanitize all books prior to putting them back on the shelf.

Speeding

Reminder of the 20km/h speed limit when travelling through the Village.

Dog Walking

Dogs to be on leads at all times for their safety in the Village.
