I have given several aviation talks at Evergreen Noordhoek and would like to extend the offer to the other Evergreen villages.

My interest in aviation photography was sparked at a young age as my father was a navigator during WW2 in B25 Mitchell bombers and I have always been enthralled by aircraft and flying.

In 1999 I visited Duxford in the UK and that was the start of an aviation magazine career which carries on to this day.

I have three different talks – Flying Legends airshow at Duxford, the Royal International Air Tattoo (RIAT for short) at RAF Fairford and then an American trip and a flight in Fat Albert which is the supply aircraft for the Blue Angels and some South African airshows.

I am happy to come and share my photography and talk with interested residents at the villages.

You can also view my photos on www.planekrazy.co.za

I look forward to coming to your village and giving the talks.

Pete van der Spek (Evergreen Noordhoek)
