A Handful of Keys is back

Evergreen, Updated and Expanded

If we can get a group of 20 or more together we can get a group discount. A matinee show on Saturday 2nd December at 16:00, or Sunday 3rd December at 15:00, is suggested.

We need to know by Friday 27th October who would like to attend this show to see if we can arrange a discount.

South Africa's most successful musical revue ever returns due to never ending public demand.

Launched in 1994, as a co-creation between Ian von Memerty and Bryan Schimmel the show has played over the last 23 years to more the 420,000 people in over 1450 performances.

Multiple awards, love letters from the critics and adulation from audiences have poured in for this “brilliant, hilarious and virtuoso celebration of the piano”. The show unravels as a constant surprise, from devastating wit, to musical mastery, to piano pyrotechnics, to inspiring inventiveness –a two hour fireworks display of excitement, energy and sheer, mind-blowing talent.

This year the two talents will feature 40 something Roelof Colyn. A Handful stalwart since 2001. Beloved by Handful audiences for his effortless charm, dead pan wit and the liquid magic of his playing.

James Smith (19) the youngest person to ever appear in A Handful of Keys. As Ian says “It is a risk putting such a young person into a show as complicated and subtle as A Handful of Keys, but I believe that James, with his unique mix of musicality, quirky humour, and the beautiful timbre of his expressive voice is up to the challenge”.

Handful of Keys audiences can still expect highlights such as “The Complete of The Broadway Musical in 12 minutes”, Liberace, Elton John, Stevie Wonder, Funeral for A Friend and the SA Medley – but of course with three sparkling talents on stage the opportunities to invent new material are tantalizing.

Don't miss this “endlessly evergreen explosion of entertainment”
