

BROADACRES VILLAGE RESIDENTS COMMITTEE

COMMUNIQUE

Being a communication to residents about Book Club

30 July 2018

Dear Residents,

Our next Book and Coffee morning
21 August 2018

INDIA a land of diversity by Sue Kuschke

Sue loves this fascinating country with its astonishing variety of features – from ancient temples and crowded markets to skyscrapers and slums. This diversity never fails to amaze when one sees bullock carts competing with motor vehicles, street vendors selling their wares in the shadow of fashionable shopping centres and snake charmers existing amicably with physicians and scientists.

Sue is particularly drawn to its spiritual aspect and has visited several Ashrams taking part in the practice of yoga and meditation.

*Open invitation to all;
Come and listen to Sue and join in a discussion about this fascinating country*

Notes from the Library

Dear Evergreeners

Please make a note of the 21 August 2018, which is our next

Book and Coffee Morning

It promises to be an interesting morning – Sue Edwards will tell us about the magnificent bookshop she visited in New York, and then

Sue Kuschke will take us on a visual tour of India, introducing us to the land, its people and its spirituality.

On a more serious note, there are still some 108 missing library books –

many of these are [were] really popular; we'd really like to have them on our shelves again.

So please search your bookshelves and ask your friends and family if they have borrowed them.

A couple of titles –

447 - Jeffrey Archer, Prisoner of Birth

6 - Mark Behr, Embrace

114 - Maeve Binchy, To Hear a Nightingale

192/773 - Charlotte Bingham, Love Song

1541 - Tilly Bagshaw, After the Darkness

765 - Lee Child, Persuader

924 - Michael Connelly, Blood Work

606 - Michael Connelly, The Black Echo

Book Reviews

From our last meeting on 19th June 2018

It was a good morning spent listening to book reviews over a cup of coffee and some delicious eats – thanks to Kathy, Shirley and Libby.

Missing books: 147 books were originally identified as missing, of which 36 have since been returned, found or replaced. Please continue the search and remember that -

- our library is for the use of Evergreen life-right holders
- all books, DVD or CDs borrowed must be entered in the log book

Log book:

The information required has been reduced which should, together with the dated slips, enable us to find our entry in the log when returning books.

Donated books:

Please do not remove books from the Donated Basket

Duplicate copies of books already in our library are donated to the Care Centre library.

Some interesting new books in our library include –

Non-fiction

- Ricochet by Richard Feldman – snippets from the life of a mercenary
- Selkirk's Island by Diana Souhami – the true story behind Robinson Crusoe
- Journey to Infinity by Carol Hawking – the first wife of Stephen Hawking
- Kwezi by Redi Tlhabi – the story of the lady who accused Jacob Zuma of rape

Fiction

- House of Spies by Daniel Silva – Gabriel Allon is back and out for revenge
- Every Breath I take by Mary Higgins Clarke – suspense drama
- Manhattan Beach by J Egan – historical fiction

Book Reviews

Anne Haselum: The Story of Edgar Sawtelle by David Wroblewski

Jean Spurr: The Storms of War by Kate Williams

Eddie Simpson: Clive Cussler, the author and his books

Sue Edwards: Munich by Robert Harris

Then she was gone by Lisa Jewell

The Bookseller of Kabul by Asne Seierstad

What an interesting and varied selection of books, well done and many thanks to all the reviewers.
