NATIONAL FRUITCAKE DAY

27 December 2021

NATIONAL FRUITCAKE DAY

National Fruitcake Day is December 27, a day to celebrate every nutty person you know.

Wait!

That's not right. It's a day for lovers of fruitcake to rejoice in the delights of the world's most misunderstood fruit. A fruitcake is a boozy, chewy, rich amalgam of dried fruit, nuts, and sugar, saturated with your favorite alcohol, most commonly brandy or bourbon. That produces a dense, sweet, and textured treat generally served around the holidays.

Fruitcakes have been found in ancient Egyptian tombs, so you know that the tradition is steeped in history as well as booze.

NATIONAL CARD PLAYING DAY

28 December 2021

NATIONAL CARD PLAYING DAY

Shuffle your cards and cut the deck on Card Playing Day, December 28th.

It is the ideal activity to spend time with your family without having to chatter away or go on some big outing. The Christmas hustle and bustle is over, there is still time off from work, and the excitement from opening presents has diminished. There's nothing like a slow-paced game of cards to relax while having fun!

Meet us in in the Lifestyle Centre at 10h00 for some cards. Card Players, invite your neighbouring Residents to share in your games and learn a new fun filled activity

NATIONAL CHAMPAGNE DAY

31 December 2021

NATIONAL CHAMPAGNE DAY

National Champagne Day is informally observed on December 31. This is a perfect day to observe this holiday because we are pretty certain you will all be making a New Year's Eve toast with champagne.

Champagne is a sparkling wine produced in the Champagne region of France under the rules of appellation. The name Champagne is legally protected. However, some use this term as a generic term for sparkling wines.

As Champagne can be quite expensive, we will allow you ;) to celebrate the National Champagne Day drinking any sparkling wine you like, no matter whether it comes from France, Italy, or California.

Instead of drinking Champagne, you could make a champagne cocktail that will be perfect for New Year's Eve. For instance, Mimosa is a classic Champagne cocktail.

Pop that cork and celebrate in style!
