Margaret Roberts Herbal Centre

BOOK MORNING OUTING 22 FEBRUARY 2023

The centre, situated on the northern slopes of the Magaliesberg, is a magical place filled with beautiful gardens of all types and styles.

The centre was founded over 40 years ago by Margaret Roberts and her legacy now continues under her daughter, Sandy.

The gardens have carefully laid out paths for easy access. While they are beautiful and inspiring, there is even more to see and experience. Walk the labyrinth designed in the style of that at Chartres Cathedral in France, play a game on a life-sized chess board, and be enchanted in a fairy gallery.

After a good wander around how wonderful to relax and enjoy a fragrant tea, a light lunch or snack in the restaurant. And then once restored, to shop!

Or would you prefer a quiet moment? Steal away to visit the little garden chapel, admire the stained glass windows, enjoy uplifting music and read the prayers for the animals written on the chapel walls.

Sound like fun?

Join us on Wednesday morning, 22 February, leaving around 10am.

Please let us know by 15 February 2023 by contacting Libby [1002], Pru [1103] Judy [1032] or Sarah [1045].

Transport – it's about an hour's drive so hopefully some will volunteer to drive and the passengers can contribute towards petrol costs.

The entrance fee is R20 per car.

NATURE AND BIRDING GROUP

Very exciting news, André Marx who does the bird walks at Random Harvest, has offered to do an early morning bird walk here at Evergreen on Thursday 23rd February 2023. This walk is open to all residents of Evergreen.

COST

- Rusks, Coffee/Tea before walk: No charge
- Walk: No charge.
- Breakfast: The Bistro will be open for breakfast from 8am. Should you stay for breakfast this will be for your own account.

NOTE: This will be an early start.

6.15am meet at the Club House for Rusks and Coffee/Tea.

6.45am leave for the walk.

8.15am approximate return.

Breakfast at the Bistro, from the Breakfast Menu, will be available following the walk.

Please advise, by 20th February if:

- You will join the Bird Walk
- You will stay for breakfast. Andrew needs some idea of how people will stay for breakfast.
