Be serenaded by the melodies of the Johannesburg Opera in their tribute to Puccini

The Johannesburg Opera presents the centennial commemoration of the composer Giacomo Puccini. This special performance pays tribute to the one-hundredth anniversary of Puccini's passing on November 29, 1924, in Brussels, Belgium. Puccini started the operatic trend toward realism with his popular works, among the most often performed in opera history including 'La Bohème', 'Madama Butterfly' and 'Tosca'.

The composer's heart-wrenching Romantic Era melodies are skillfully expressed under the direction of Jozi Opera managing director Pheny Modiane, and through the exceptional talents of some of South Africa's finest opera singers.
