Companionship

EVERGREEN LIFESTYLE PHOTOGRAPHIC COMPETITION SEPTEMBER 2021

COMPANIONSHIP

A companion is a person who frequently spends time with you, associates with you, or accompanies you when you go places. Companionship is similar to friendship, and a person one calls a companion is usually their friend or romantic partner. But the word companionship specifically implies that a lot of time is spent in each other's company.

The word commonly applies to relationships between people, but PETS can also provide companionship.

Having a companion in life, whether they are a relative, friend or carer, helps keep the mind active and prevent social isolation. Someone there to engage in conversation with, even if it's for a few moments, encourages mental stimulation and positive thoughts, as well as reminisce memories.

Ultimately the bond of all companionship, whether in marriage or in friendship, is conversation. – Oscar Wilde
