"Youth fades; love droops; the leaves of friendship fall; A mother's secret hope outlives them all." —Oliver Wendell Holmes

Dear Residents,

This Sunday we celebrate Mother's Day!

Mother's Day was first celebrated on May 10, 1908, by Anna Jarvis, at St. Andrew's Methodist Church in Grafton, West Virginia, and has evolved into a global celebration, recognizing the profound impact of mothers, grandmothers, caregivers, and mother figures in our lives. No doubt that their love, guidance, and sacrifices shape families and communities.

Kind-2-Hearing will be visiting our village on 8 May at 10h00 in the lifestyle centre. Both old and new residents are more than welcome to pop around for a free hearing screening.

Warm up your winter with a free Pilates class. Join us to boost your energy, flexibility and overall well-being. Let's get moving and feel the warmth from the inside out, please refer to page 8 for more details.

Wishing all of our residents a blessed week ahead.

OPERA

L'heure Espagnole (The Spanish Hour) (Maurice Ravel)

Date: Tuesday 6 May 2025

Time: 2pm

Venue: Cinema Room 1

The composer, Maurice Ravel, is best known for the famous Bolero and other pieces, but he also composed two short operas, today's opera is the best; it is a light, happy opera set to superb music.

The action takes place in the shop of clockmaker, Torquemada, in Toledo and is a farcical one act show. Concepción, the unfaithful wife of the old clockmaker arranged his appointments to give her a clear hour every week to spend with her latest lover.

While the canny old clockmaker is out setting the town's clocks lots of activity takes place in the shop.

It ends happily with a Habanero chorus from the cast.

The choice of a short opera (52 min) is to make sure the audience has ample time to prepare for the live Classics Lite concert in the LifeStyle Centre later in the evening.

Book using the booking list on the notice board located at the back entrance to the Lifestyle Centre nearest the lift and swimming pool
