Rear Admiral Christopher Hart Bennett, SM, MMM, SA Navy, Retired

After matriculating from Kingswood College, Grahamstown, Chris Bennett joined the South African Navy and served for over 30 years at sea and ashore. In 1964 he qualified as a Torpedo Anti Submarine specialist officer on the Royal Navy course at HMS Vernon and in 1978 successfully completed the SADF Joint Services Staff Course. In the early 1970s he was Naval Attaché in London for three years and later served in Pretoria at both Naval Headquarters and Defence Headquarters in various staff posts. He was promoted to Rear Admiral in 1986 when he was appointed as Flag Officer Commanding of the newly established Naval Command West, returning to Pretoria after three successful years for his final appointment as Chief of Naval Staff. Since his retirement he has written many articles and papers on maritime strategic matters affecting the South African Navy and is the author of a number of Naval Digests published by the Naval Heritage Trust of South Africa. He is the author of 'Three Frigates – The South African Navy comes of age', a definitive history of the President Class frigates, 'South African Naval Events Day-by-Day' a diary of major naval events in the history of South Africa and co-author of 'South Africa's Navy – A Navy of the People and for the People.' In 2008 he became the honorary editor for the Naval Heritage Trust and since that date has edited and compiled a total of 9 books and 10 Naval Digests for the Trust.

CV – CLAIRE McKINNON

Briefly, I was born and raised in Pretoria and attended Loreto Convent throughout my school years.

During Pretoria years I worked in a variety of disciplines ranging from legal to environmental education to research into the grasslands of the savanna, the karoo biome and finally the design of landfill sites at the Council for Scientific Research (CSIR).

I moved to Cape Town over 20 years ago after being headhunted by the City of Cape Town to fulfil a senior management position in Council. I headed up the Cleansing department (the largest in the City) where I had 3200 staff and managed a budget of just over R1 billion.

I retired in 2016.

My interests are family, gardening, reading, theatre, music and sugar craft.

If you want to know anything more about me chat to me!

DENISE ELKIN
APARTMENT 320, EVERGREEN LIFESTYLE

I was born in Pretoria and moved to Benoni at a young age, I matriculated at Benoni High School.

I'm married to Keith and we have two sons.

Before my retirement in 2012 I worked in Magazine Publishing; various publications but most recently Elle and Elle Decoration. I was Managing Editor of an annual publication called Pursuit which is like the yellow pages of the fashion industry.

I served as a Society Steward at Claremont Methodist Church for 5 years, resigning upon our move to Evergreen, although we still attend church at CMC I can no longer serve on the executive due to distance. I was convenor of the Annual Evening Market, Second Hand Clothing Sales and organised most of the social events. I established a Pastoral Care Ministry where we care for our members.
