

Dear Evergreener's

A quarter of the year is gone! As we look forward to April, we continue to hope and pray for much needed rain. Despite Day Zero being shifted to 2019 we must continue to adhere to the current water restrictions and use 50 litres of water per person per day. We said goodbye to Claire McKinnon our Rescom chairman and thank her for all her hard work during her short tenure as chairman. Claire will be taking pic's for the picture notice board on 13 April from 10h30. If you have not had your picture taken or would like a new one done, now is the time. These pic's are a nice way of getting to know fellow residents. Dave D'Alton has taken over the reigns as Chairman and Chris Bennett as Vice Chair. We wish them well. Until next time, take care.

Warm regards, Melanie.

A warm welcome to the newest members of the Evergreen family.....

Wendy Stroberg (Apart 6) Not moved in yet

Condolences to the families of Heather McLachlan (Apart 237) Carol Gadd (Apart 247)

We said goodbye to Claire McKinnon (Apart 202) Rod Myburgh (Apart 228)

Residents enjoyed a wonderful St Patricks Day lunch prepared by Western Province Caterers on 17 March. Many joined in the day's celebration by dressing in green while others simply added a touch of green to their attire. Either way, it was a wonderful day.

A presentation by Dr's Clark & Cholwill was held on Thursday 15 March. Thanks to Lou Devine from Unique Health for arranging this event.

The Amazing Race was held on Friday 2 March. Participants had 6 questions to answer and within no time the race was over. Below are the winners Paul & Audrey Selby, Hugh & Linda Till, Joan Jackson & Claire McKinnon. Many thanks to Lesley & Magdalene De Wet & Margaret Clough for organising the event. Vivian Gottlieb assisted with the tallying of scores and checking answers. Thanks to all who participated.

- All I have learned from Noah's Ark.
- ONE: Don't miss the boat.
- TWO: Remember that we are all in the same boat!
- THREE: Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark.
- FOUR: Stay fit. When you're 80, someone may ask you to do something really big.
- FIVE: Don't listen to critics; just get on with the job that needs to be done.
- SIX: Build your future on high ground.
- SEVEN: For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
- EIGHT: Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.
- NINE: When you're stressed, float awhile.
- TEN: Remember, the Ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.
- ELEVEN: No matter the storm, there's always a rainbow waiting.

Laughter is good medicine. Enjoy !

A Minneapolis couple decided to go to Florida to thaw out during a particularly icy winter. They planned to stay at the same hotel where they spent their honeymoon 20 years earlier.

Because of hectic schedules, it was difficult to coordinate their travel schedules. So, the husband left Minnesota and flew to Florida on Thursday, with his wife flying down the following day.

The husband checked into the hotel. There was a computer in his room, so he decided to send an email to his wife. However, he accidentally left out one letter in her email address, and without realizing his error, sent the e-mail.

Meanwhile, somewhere in Houston, a widow had just returned home from her husband's funeral. He was a minister who was called home to glory following a heart attack.

The widow decided to check her e-mail expecting messages from relatives and friends. After reading the first message, she screamed and fainted.

The widow's son rushed into the room, found his mother on the floor, and saw the computer screen which read:

*To: My Loving Wife
Subject: I've Arrived
Date: July 19, 2010*

I know you're surprised to hear from me. They have computers here now and you are allowed to send emails to your loved ones. I've just arrived and have been checked in.

I've seen that everything has been prepared for your arrival tomorrow. Looking forward to seeing you then! Hope your journey is as uneventful as mine was.

P. S. Sure is freaking hot down here!!!!

The Postman

One Monday morning the Postman is riding through the neighbourhood on his usual route, delivering the mail.

As he approaches one of the homes he noticed that both cars were still in the driveway. His wonder was cut short by Derek, the homeowner, coming out with a load of empty beer and liquor bottles for the recycling bin.

'Wow Derek, looks like you guys had one hell of a party last night,' the Postman comments.

Derek, in obvious pain, replies 'Actually we had it Saturday night. This is the first I have felt like moving since 4:00 am Sunday morning. We had about fifteen couples from around the neighbourhood over for some weekend fun and it got a bit wild. We all got so drunk around midnight that we started playing WHO AM I.'

The Postman thinks a moment and says, 'How do you play WHO AM I?'

'Well, all the guys go in the bedroom and we come out one at a time with a sheet covering us, and only our 'family jewels' showing through a hole in the sheet. Then the women try to guess who it is.'

The Postman laughs and says, 'Sounds like fun. I'm sorry I missed that.'

'Probably a good thing you did,' Derek responded.

'Your name came up seven times

BOER SE GEBED

Die Boer baklei en gaan aan die skel met sy werkers.

Sy vrou vat hom simpatiek aan die hand en lei hom kamer toe.

"Nou gaan jy op jou knieë," sê sy, "en praat jou hart uit teenoor die Here."

"Heer", begin die boer

"Johannes het weer die ploeg gebreek.

Jonas het die koeie in die gat laat val en Karolis was alweer dronk.

Vader ek wil net graag weet of U hulle gaan kom haal of moet ek hulle vir U stuur."

Amen
