

CURRICULUM VITAE OF CHRISTIAN FICK

My wife, Hazel and I, who have been married for nearly 49 years, moved to Apartment 317 Evergreen Lifestyle Village on 13th March 2018 from Gonubie (East London).

I matriculated from Kimberley Boys' High in December 1963 and immediately joined the Department of Justice in East London where my parents lived at the time.

I completed the Public Service Law Diploma and completed the first year of the Public Service Law Diploma when I was approached by Squire Smith & Laurie, a firm of Attorneys, to join them to do my articles which I completed with a B Proc degree through the University of South Africa.

I was admitted as an Attorney and Notary Public on 8th April 1976 and as a Conveyancer in August 1976. I was admitted as a partner of the firm immediately.

My work experience in the Department of Justice included working in the Accounts Department, the Bantu Affairs Department, Prosecuting and sitting on the Bench for minor criminal matters. I was placed on the Relief Staff for two years before being placed at King William's Town as a Public Prosecutor.

For my B Proc Degree I was forced to study Latin since I did not study Latin at School and as non legal subjects I studied Afrikaans and Accounting.

My Attorneys practice included litigation, Criminal Defence, Liquor and Casino Applications for Sun International and numerous clients, debt collection, divorce matters and Conveyancing. I was also an Examiner on the Conveyancing Examination Panel for about 15 years. In fact I had a very varied practice and acted for Steve Biko as well as Lennox Sebe, the President of the erstwhile Ciskei Republic. I also have 46 years experience in the administration of deceased estates.

Hazel and I attended the King William's Town Methodist Church for 36 years where I was a Society Steward for a number of years as well as Society Treasurer as well as Circuit Treasurer for about 20 years. Before joining the Muizenberg Methodist Church we attended the Gonubie Methodist Church where we were both in the choir and we were both Society Stewards. I was also Chairman of the Trust Properties of the Church.

BRIEF C.V. OF LYDIA HIRSCHMANN

Having started and managed my own successful business for over 25 years, I can offer these skills to Reskom and for the benefit of the residents.

I do have a good understanding of finance, handling of people, the ability to solve business issues in order to result in a successful outcome.

I would like to offer my services for making the happiness of the residents my main consideration.

Unit 2 John Morgan

I was born and schooled in Rhodesia. Thereafter, I joined Cooper Brothers & Co. with whom I served Articles and qualified as a chartered Accountant then moved into the Industrial Sector where I eventually became Financial Director of a clothing Manufacturing Group.

Gill and I were married in Rhodesia and moved with our 2 children to Cape Town in 1977 where we have remained although our children and grandchildren are now based in London.

Since then, I served as Financial Director or Accountant for clothing manufacturers and a Furniture Retailer before taking early retirement in 1997. From then until 2010, my work mainly entailed consultancy at various companies or groups and now I spend more time playing bowls. Committee involvement was with the Cape Clothing Manufacturers Association Executive Committee as well as being Treasurer and President Chairman of Meadowridge Bowling Club with whom I was involved since inception.

C V RESCOM EVERGREEN MUIZENBERG

Dave D'Alton

Unit 3

Resident since 2011. Retired Bank Manager and City Councillor for this area Served on the Committee from 2013 to 2015 as Chairman during the time of the first residents taking occupation of the new apartments. Have a good knowledge of AMDEC and successful relationship with Management and the Directors.

Rear Admiral Christopher Hart Bennett, SM, MMM, SA Navy, Retired

After matriculating from Kingswood College, Grahamstown, Chris Bennett joined the South African Navy and served for over 30 years at sea and ashore. In 1964 he qualified as a Torpedo Anti Submarine specialist officer on the Royal Navy course at HMS Vernon and in 1978 successfully completed the SADF Joint Services Staff Course. In the early 1970s he was Naval Attaché in London for three years and later served in Pretoria at both Naval Headquarters and Defence Headquarters in various staff posts. He was promoted to Rear Admiral in 1986 when he was appointed as Flag Officer Commanding of the newly established Naval Command West, returning to Pretoria after three successful years for his final appointment as Chief of Naval Staff. Since his retirement he has written many articles and papers on maritime strategic matters affecting the South African Navy and is the author of a number of Naval Digests published by the Naval Heritage Trust of South Africa. He is the author of 'Three Frigates – The South African Navy comes of age', a definitive history of the President Class frigates, 'South African Naval Events Day-by-Day' a diary of major naval events in the history of South Africa and co-author of 'South Africa's Navy – A Navy of the People and for the People.'

In 2008 he became the honorary editor for the Naval Heritage Trust and since that date has edited and compiled a total of 9 books and 10 Naval Digests for the Trust.

DENISE ELKIN
APARTMENT 320, EVERGREEN LIFESTYLE

I was born in Pretoria and moved to Benoni at a young age, I matriculated at Benoni High School.

I'm married to Keith and we have two sons.

Before my retirement in 2012 I worked in Magazine Publishing; various publications but most recently Elle and Elle Decoration. I was Managing Editor of an annual publication called Pursuit which is like the yellow pages of the fashion industry.

I served as a Society Steward at Claremont Methodist Church for 5 years, resigning upon our move to Evergreen, although we still attend church at CMC I can no longer serve on the executive due to distance. I was convenor of the Annual Evening Market, Second Hand Clothing Sales and organised most of the social events. I established a Pastoral Care Ministry where we care for our members.

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME: Professor David Rosenberg

QUALIFICATIONS: BCom (Hons), CTA, H Dip Co Law, CA (SA)

ID NUMBER: 490210 5065 083

MARITAL STATUS: Divorced

CHILDREN: Sarah Ann (Born 23 June 1977)
BSc, BCom, GDA, CA (SA)

Morris Bernard (Born 23 June 1979)
BCom

ADDRESS: 115 Evergreen Village
Sunrise Boulevard
Muizenberg
7945

CONTACT DETAILS: 078 331 3000 (Mobile)
david.rosenberg.2015@gmail.com (Email)

GOVERNANCE EXPERIENCE: I have been Chairperson of the following Audit Committees:

Port Elizabeth Metro

Camdeboo Municipality (Graaff-Reinet)

Blue Crane Municipality (Somerset East)

Jansenville Municipality

Currently I serve on the Audit Committee of Kareedouw Municipality.

Have taught Corporate Governance at post graduate level in South Africa, Germany and Lithuania.

Have a deep understanding of Corporate Governance matters including the Companies Act and King 3.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- 1973 - 1975 Audit Senior Arthur Andersen & Co
- 1976 - 1979 Alternate Director GD Searle & Co - subsidiary company of a US based multi-national pharmaceutical company
- 1980 - 1992 Financial Director of Pfizer Laboratories, a subsidiary of the largest multi-national pharmaceutical company in the world
- 1993 - 1995 Managing Director of MTSA (Pty) Limited, a subsidiary of Minerals Technologies Inc., a refractory company based in New York
- 1996 - 1998 Vice President Operations of Minerals Technologies Europe NV based in Belgium with responsibility for Europe, Africa, Middle East, India and Turkey
- 1999 - 2007 Associate Professor of Management Accounting and Finance at Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University
- 2008 – 2014 Associate Professor of Management Accounting and Finance at Rhodes University, Grahamstown. In 2011 and 2012 my students at Rhodes achieved the highest average marks per student in the finance section of Part 1 of the Chartered Accountancy examination.

REFERENCES:

Professor John Williams, Department of Accounting,
Rhodes University
john.willilams@ru.ac.za
082 809 9399 (Mobile)

Mr Hugh Harnett, Department of Accounting,
Rhodes University
h.harnett@ru.ac.za
079 909 8956 (Mobile)