2.5 ml (1/2 tsp) baking powder

4 squares white chocolate

Method

In a mixing bowl combine the flour, baking powder, sugar and cocoa. Whisk in the eggs, then the milk and oil. Add the nuts and mix well to combine. Divide the batter between 4 paper or china cups or mugs. Using the back of a spoon, press a square of each chocolate into the middle of each cup. Cook 2 at a time in the microwave on full power for 2-3 minutes. Rather undercook than overcook, Remove from the oven and leave to stand for 5 minutes before serving, or allow to cool. Then enjoy!

Calling on ALL our Village Sewers

A Challenge from Gill Blackburn, A001

Why don't we become part of the solution?

I suggest all the women in the village with sewing machines could help make enough masks for the entire village. I'm sure most of us have enough scraps to make some and the only thing which might be required is buying elastic - but tape ties could also work. There are loads of patterns for masks on the internet or I have one from the Sunday Times.

Who can make the most colourful?

Guidelines for Material Masks

Must be 3-layers

- Not to be worn longer than one day
- If mask gets wet (while wearing it), remove it immediately
- Masks should be washed in very hot or boiling water (above 60 degrees Celsius)
- Wash in usual washing powder
- If possible dry in direct sunlight or make use of a tumble dryer (on heat cycle)
