

Catering Report 27th August 24

Meals served in the Bistro still vary in quality, but the standard continues to improve. As the quality increases the quantity of some of the meals decreases.

The Christmas in July function was well catered for, and positive feedback was received from residents. The only negative comment concerned the consistency of the mashed potatoes.

Roast meats tend to be sliced too thickly, causing residents with dentures some difficulty.