Dear Resident

We are geared up for our Christmas Craft Market and we have had a marvellous response. Vendors will be setting up early in the morning and the Market will be open up at 11am until 4pm

Please remember that pre-ordered lunch will be delivered to your units. However, the Boardwalk Bistro is open the whole day for breakfast, light meals and sweet treats and of course tea and coffee. This will be served in the Tea Lounge (BIG TV lounge). Please make every effort to attend and support your fellow residents and the Crafters who have wonderful items for sale. Cash and Card accepted!

If you have any questions for the Town Hall Meeting to be held on Wednesday, 6 November at 3pm, please drop these off at the office by no later than Monday. 4 November close of business. We have a Full calendar for the month of November. Enjoy! Have a wonderful weekend.

British comedy, Uproar in the House.

Nigel Pitt, a prudish twit who is also a fledgling politician, has been set up with a fake wife and household staff in a scheme to sell a country house. When the clients arrive before expected, the resulting dialogue is a series of charming lies, followed by attempts to extricate each other from successive lies.
