ABOUT US

Ledikana is a South African fashion and accessories brand based in Johannesburg. We specialise in the manufacturing of contemporary African garments, hats, and other fashion accessories. Our products are handmade and culturally inspired. Style and quality is at the forefront of our manufacturing process.

MISSION

Our mission is to:

- manufacture quality contemporary products that are proudly made in South Africa
- partner with creative and professional people in producing unique products and promoting our brand globally
- create an environment where people are inspired to be the best they can be and making products that will satisfy our customers' needs and desires
- celebrate the heritage and culture of South Africa and
 - make a difference in the markets we service locally and internationally.

• VISION

Our vision is:

to celebrate the heritage and culture of South Africa and make a difference in the markets we service locally and internationally

PARTNERSHIPS

Ledikana has partnered with local artisans in producing unique and bespoke accessories.

Our partnership with local artisans ensures that we offer a great variety of fashion accessories to choose from.

We also source products from acclaimed South African designers in our retail space.

By partnering with our peers we are able to promote good quality contemporary African products, showcase our heritage and reach markets beyond our shores
